It's amazing to me how a candidate can run from something while he embraces it. Bob Riley and the BCA have been behind Clyde Chambliss' bid for State Senate for a while. Chambliss is running against Harris Garner.

Riley and the Business Council of Alabama (BCA) are the biggest pushers of Common Core in Alabama, the despicable, Anti-American school standards that even has recommended reading that promotes homosexuality to ten year olds. The same Common Core that is pushed by President Obama. Of course Chambliss has flip-flopped on the issue and now says he is not in favor of Common Core even though his biggest contributor is the BCA. One can easily find the colossal BCA contributions to Chambliss on the Alabama Secretary of State's website.
